Dear "Soccer Players & Parents"

This letter confirms that you have registered player(s) for CLEAT Soccer Camp 2018. We are excited for this year's program and all it will include.

Attached is a brochure that has a checklist of things that you should bring, as well as the daily schedule. If you have not already filled out and sent in a Medical Release form, then you will need to make sure to bring one with you Monday morning. A separate Medical Release form needs to be filled out for each child that participates in the soccer camp. A copy of the form has been attached for your convenience or you can go online to www.CleatSoccerCamp.org to access the form.

PLEASE REMEMBER TO BRING YOUR MEDICAL RELEASE FORMS FILLED OUT AND SIGNED WITH YOU ON MONDAY MORNING. PLAYERS WILL NOT BE ALLOWED ON THE FIELD WITHOUT A SIGNED FORM.

Registration will open Monday morning at 8:45 a.m. where your child will be given his or her team assignment and receive a t-shirt and a ball. Please arrive in a timely manner as this process may take a while to complete, but there is no need to arrive early.

If you have any questions about any of this, don't hesitate to call us before camp starts. Please leave a message on the phone and we will have someone call you back as soon as we get your message.

We will be holding a Celebration Sunday following the week of camp. There is a special service on Sunday, July 22nd beginning at 10:00am inside Marcus Whitman Jr. High. The celebration will continue with a BBQ after the service and soccer games to follow. You are invited to come and join the fun.

We will see you Monday morning at 8:45 a.m. to finish registration.

Sincerely,
Berney Gorsuch

Concussion Information Sheet

A concussion is a brain injury and all brain injuries are serious. They are caused by a bump, blow, or jolt to the head, or by a blow to another part of the body with the force transmitted to the head. They can range from mild to severe and can disrupt the way the brain normally works. Even though most concussions are mild, all concussions are potentially serious and may result in complications including prolonged brain damage and death if not recognized and managed properly. In other words, even a “ding” or a bump on the head can be serious. You can’t see a concussion and most sports concussions occur without loss of consciousness. Signs and symptoms of concussion may show up right after the injury or can take hours or days to fully appear. If your child reports any symptoms of concussion, or if you notice the symptoms or signs of concussion yourself, seek medical attention right away.

Symptoms may include one or more of the following:

- | | |
|--|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Headaches• “Pressure in head”• Nausea or vomiting• Neck pain• Balance problems or dizziness• Blurred, double, or fuzzy vision• Sensitivity to light or noise• Feeling sluggish or slowed down• Feeling foggy or groggy• Drowsiness• Change in sleep patterns | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Amnesia• “Don’t feel right”• Fatigue or low energy• Sadness• Nervousness or anxiety• Irritability• More emotional• Confusion• Concentration or memory problems (forgetting game plays)• Repeating the same question/comment |
|--|--|

Signs observed by teammates, parents and coaches include:

| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Appears dazed• Vacant facial expression• Confused about assignment• Forgets plays• Is unsure of game, score, or opponent• Moves clumsily or displays incoordination• Answers questions slowly• Slurred speech• Shows behavior or personality changes• Can’t recall events prior to hit• Can’t recall events after hit• Seizures or convulsions• Any change in typical behavior or personality• Loses consciousness |

Concussion Information Sheet

What can happen if my child keeps on playing with a concussion or returns too soon?

Athletes with the signs and symptoms of concussion should be removed from play immediately. Continuing to play with the signs and symptoms of a concussion leaves the young athlete especially vulnerable to greater injury. There is an increased risk of significant damage from a concussion for a period of time after that concussion occurs, particularly if the athlete suffers another concussion before completely recovering from the first one. This can lead to prolonged recovery, or even to severe brain swelling (second impact syndrome) with devastating and even fatal consequences. It is well known that adolescent or teenage athlete will often under report symptoms of injuries. And concussions are no different. As a result, education of administrators, coaches, parents and students is the key for student-athlete's safety.

If you think your child has suffered a concussion

Any athlete even suspected of suffering a concussion should be removed from the game or practice immediately. No athlete may return to activity after an apparent head injury or concussion, regardless of how mild it seems or how quickly symptoms clear, without medical clearance. Close observation of the athlete should continue for several hours. The new "Zackery Lystedt Law" in Washington now requires the consistent and uniform implementation of long and well-established return to play concussion guidelines that have been recommended for several years:

"a youth athlete who is suspected of sustaining a concussion or head injury in a practice or game shall be removed from competition at that time" and

"...may not return to play until the athlete is evaluated by a licensed health care provider trained in the evaluation and management of concussion and received written clearance to return to play from that health care provider".

You should also inform your child's coach if you think that your child may have a concussion. Remember, it's better to miss one game than miss the whole season. And when in doubt, the athlete sits out.

For current and up-to-date information on concussions you can go to:
<http://www.cdc.gov/ConcussionInYouthSports/>

My player(s) and parent(s)/guardian acknowledge that we have read the above information.

Thank you for your attention, you are now in compliance.
