Psalm 78:1–8

- 1 Give ear, O my people, to my teaching; incline your ears to the words of my mouth!
- 2 I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings from of old,
- 3 things that we have heard and known, that our fathers have told us.
- 4 We will not hide them from their children, but tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the Lord, and his might, and the wonders that he has done.
- 5 He established a testimony in Jacob and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers to teach to their children,
- 6 that the next generation might know them, the children yet unborn, and arise and tell them to their children,
- 7 so that they should set their hope in God and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments;
- 8 and that they should not be like their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation whose heart was not steadfast, whose spirit was not faithful to God.
